

What opportunities are there for me?

What we need to do

- Reach out, listen and respond to people's needs
- Engage with issues of social justice
- Provide a welcoming meeting place
- Affirm the presence of God in our lives
- Proclaim the Good News of Christ
- Deepen our relationship with God

How you can help us

There are many ways in which you can help us address these needs. Examples are (please tick those of interest to you):

- Acting as a sidesperson at services
- Serving coffee on Saturdays or after the 10am Eucharist service on Sunday
- Joining the choir
- Helping with the young church/crèche
- Helping with a uniformed organisation
- Becoming a server at Eucharist services
- Being a driver to help get parishioners to church
- Helping with the Night Shelter
- Meeting and Greeting newcomers to our services
- Joining a Bible study group
- Reading lessons at services

- Becoming a member of Finance, Fabric, Social or Pastoral Care teams where your particular talents could be used
- Training as a Reader or SPA or ordained priest
- Running a stall at the Christmas Fair
- Helping with or making refreshments for functions
- Helping with the Toddlers Group
- Delivering Parish magazines

Other ways to help us

You may wish to explore other ways of helping us. Please suggest them! We are open to new ideas.

Next steps

1. Tick those activities that you would like to explore. Speak to the person who is in charge of an activity: there is a list on the back of the Parish Magazine.
2. Fill in your contact details overleaf, and add a description of your skills and interests. Then hand this sheet to the wardens so that we can contact you.
3. If you wish to talk over your involvement in a new activity, please raise the topic with our Honorary Curate Richard, or with our wardens Dominic and Carolyn.

Let's talk!

Giving for Life

Time and Talents

Giving yourself in service to others

Our thanks to you

Our mission is to celebrate God's love throughout the whole community, by social action and spiritual renewal.

Through your offerings of your time and your talents we are able to offer pastoral care, develop new events, host a wide range of activities, and worship our Lord in a way fit for the 21st century.

Thanks to you: we have thriving pastoral, finance, worship, social and fabric teams to develop our mission in a professional, inclusive and caring way.

Thanks to you: we provide a safe, warm, well-lit and accepting environment for hundreds of people each week.

Thanks to you: as a team we provide lifelines for people who need assistance.

And thanks to you: we are able to be creative in our worship of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ.

We need more helpers in a wide range of roles. Do join us in this exciting and fulfilling work.

Who am I?

Please give your contact details

If you are willing to serve with us, we'd love to contact you when we need your special talents and time for voluntary work.

Please complete this brochure and hand it to the wardens so that we can maintain an up to date note of your details (below) and offers of help (over).
